

Claudio Calado

Guided by Fundamentals. Focused on You.

With over 25 years of experience in corporate finance and investment banking, I provide litigation support and expert consulting for firms engaged in complex business disputes, litigation, and arbitration. My background spans valuation, damages quantification, M&A transactions, and forensics, equipping me to deliver clear, defensible analyses between technical evidence and legal strategy. I have served both as expert witness and corporate representative, supporting through expert reports, deposition testimony, and case preparation.
